INDEX TO VOLUME IX, American Education

ADULT EDUCATION

Murchison, John. Never Too Late to Learn. Oct.: 28-31. Huntsville, Alabama is known chiefly in connection with rocketry, but many local citizens think first of its work in adult education.

ART EDUCATION

de Zutter, Patricia. The Uses of Alliance. Aug.-Sept.: 16-22. The record of nine independent art colleges indicates that union can bring many rewards without stifling identity or individuality.

Raymer, Patricia L. Climb Aboard the Artrain. Dec.: 18-21. From six ancient railroad cars the word is spreading around the land that art, like life, is for everyone to work at and enjoy.

Schnessel, S. Michael. Remarrying Art and Life. Nov.: 16-18. An Artists-in-the-schools program in New Jersey is founded on the proposition that the arts should reflect the students' daily lives.

BANKING CLUSTER

Krausen, Roland A. Of Banks and (Student) Interest.) Mar.: 10-13. Dewey High's Banking Cluster may be unfashionably hard-nosed, but students find the discipline pays off in getting and keeping jobs.

CAREER EDUCATION

deZutter, Patricia. Career Center: New Start to College or Job. Mar.: 19-23. A Kansas City community college offers a conglomerate of skill training programs without cost to the people who most need them.

Fedo, Michael W. A Metropolis as College Campus. Apr.: 7-12. All of the resources of the Minneapolis-St. Paul area are being used in the remarkable new Minnesota Metropolitan State College.

Krausen, Roland A. Of Banks and (Student) Interest. Mar.: 10-13. Dewey High's Banking Cluster may be unfashionably hard-nosed, but students find the discipline pays off in getting and keeping jobs.

Madlee, Dorothy. Careers from A to Zoo. May: 15-21. A K-12 program in Florida links academic subjects and the world of work in a practical demonstration of "career education" in action.

Murphy, Mary Kay. Getting a Jump on Career Choices. Jun.: 18-23. In Cobb County, Ga., children start in first grade to think about jobs and what they want to do with their hands and minds and lives.

Pierce, William F. The Career Education Concept. Apr.: 4-6. An OE Deputy Commissioner discusses the career approach to school reform and its stress on making the learner's interest paramount.

Wanner, Raymond E. Expanding on Career Education. Nov.: 11-13. Variations on the career education theme being developed in Europe could point to broader new applications of the concept in the U.S.

Wood, Walter. Welding Students to Shipyard Jobs. Jul.: 14-17. Business, government, and industry joined in launching a program that guarantees employment by matching supply with demand.

Wuehle, Edwin E. Career Training by Contract. Jul.: 23-26. Unable to afford a standard vocational education program, a small town Michigan school enlists local business firms to fill the gap.

COMMUNITY AND SCHOOL

Morgan, Frank W., Jr. Vermont's Community-Involved "Open" School. Jun.: 10-15. A dynamic village schoolmarm combines new ideas and old values in making the community a part of an informal approach to learning.

CONFLICT

Brenton, Myron. Conflict: Make It Work for You. Jan.-Feb.: 30-32. Controversy has a poor reputation, but students in a novel college workshop discover that conflict can be a social constructive force.

CONTINUOUS LEARNING

Martin, Margaret and Charlotte Burrows. Louisiana's High-Flying Apollo School. Mar.: 4-9. Spacious, zesty, yet relaxed, it is a place where children never fail, where they want to learn and where they learn how to learn.

DISCIPLINE IN SCHOOLS

Sapp, Ann C. Succeeding with Success Environment. Nov.: 4-10. Everything's affirmative about a project in Atlanta—the students' academic gains, their feelings, and the feelings of their teachers.

DROPOUTS

Slack, Georgia. Dade County's First Grade Dropout Fighters. Oct.: 4-8. The emphasis is on reading in a Miami elementary school curriculum that is again proving the old saw about an "ounce of prevention."

EDUCATION COMMISSION OF THE STATES

Justus, Hope. Focusing on the States. Dec.: 4-9. The Education Commission of the States has succeeded in forging a solid alliance among governors, State legislators, and educators.

EDUCATION LEGISLATION

Alford, Albert L. What Revenue Sharing Means to Education. Jan.-Feb.: 4-7. While the schools are not cited in a new law providing major sums for the States, the potential for greater fiscal support is there.

Arcuri, Shirley Copeland. IPA: Education Talent Sharing. Jun.: 33-34. The Intergovernmental Personnel Act opens avenues of cooperation between various levels of government and the schools and colleges.

Emergency School Aid Act. Jul.: 9-11. A briefing paper sums up the provisions of a new Federal law that offers support to a range of efforts to deal with racial isolation.

EDUCATIONAL TECHNOLOGY

Schlich, Victor A. Teaching English with TV. Apr.: 13-18. Recognizing that children are comfortable with television, a rural Maine school uses it to help students better their language skills.

Yarbrough, Willard V. Preschool Goes into the Mountains. Jul.: 27-31. Children in an east Tennessee area can't get to kindergarten, so TV, mobile classrooms, and home visits take kindergarten to them.

See also CAREER EDUCATION

EDUCATION—U.S.

Marland, Sidney P., Jr. Education and Public Confidence. May: 5-10. Its achievements notwithstanding, the Assistant Secretary warns, education at all levels is challenged by a wave of disenchantment.

ENGLISH

Schlich, Victor A. Teaching English with TV. Apr.: 13-18. Recognizing that children are comfortable with television, a rural Maine school uses it to help students better their language skills.

ENVIRONMENTAL EDUCATION

Horn, B. Ray. Saturday Is for the Environment. Oct.: 9-12. Michiganders by the thousands proved ready to spend part of their weekend on developing a statewide environmental education program.

INDEX TO VOLUME IX, American Education

ADULT EDUCATION

Murchison, John. Never Too Late to Learn. Oct.: 28-31. Huntsville, Alabama is known chiefly in connection with rocketry, but many local citizens think first of its work in adult education.

ART EDUCATION

de Zutter, Patricia. The Uses of Alliance. Aug.-Sept.: 16-22. The record of nine independent art colleges indicates that union can bring many rewards without stifling identity or individuality.

Raymer, Patricia L. Climb Aboard the Artrain. Dec.: 18-21. From six ancient railroad cars the word is spreading around the land that art, like life, is for everyone to work at and enjoy.

Schnessel, S. Michael. Remarrying Art and Life. Nov.: 16-18. An Artists-in-the-schools program in New Jersey is founded on the proposition that the arts should reflect the students' daily lives.

BANKING CLUSTER

Krausen, Roland A. Of Banks and (Student) Interest.) Mar.: 10-13. Dewey High's Banking Cluster may be unfashionably hard-nosed, but students find the discipline pays off in getting and keeping jobs.

CAREER EDUCATION

deZutter, Patricia. Career Center: New Start to College or Job. Mar.: 19-23. A Kansas City community college offers a conglomerate of skill training programs without cost to the people who most need them.

Fedo, Michael W. A Metropolis as College Campus. Apr.: 7-12. All of the resources of the Minneapolis-St. Paul area are being used in the remarkable new Minnesota Metropolitan State College.

Krausen, Roland A. Of Banks and (Student) Interest. Mar.: 10-13. Dewey High's Banking Cluster may be unfashionably hard-nosed, but students find the discipline pays off in getting and keeping jobs.

Madlee, Dorothy. Careers from A to Zoo. May: 15-21. A K-12 program in Florida links academic subjects and the world of work in a practical demonstration of "career education" in action.

Murphy, Mary Kay. Getting a Jump on Career Choices. Jun.: 18-23. In Cobb County, Ga., children start in first grade to think about jobs and what they want to do with their hands and minds and lives.

Pierce, William F. The Career Education Concept. Apr.: 4-6. An OE Deputy Commissioner discusses the career approach to school reform and its stress on making the learner's interest paramount.

Wanner, Raymond E. Expanding on Career Education. Nov.: 11-13. Variations on the career education theme being developed in Europe could point to broader new applications of the concept in the U.S.

Wood, Walter. Welding Students to Shipyard Jobs. Jul.: 14-17. Business, government, and industry joined in launching a program that guarantees employment by matching supply with demand.

Wuehle, Edwin E. Career Training by Contract. Jul.: 23-26. Unable to afford a standard vocational education program, a small town Michigan school enlists local business firms to fill the gap.

COMMUNITY AND SCHOOL

Morgan, Frank W., Jr. Vermont's Community-Involved "Open" School. Jun.: 10-15. A dynamic village schoolmarm combines new ideas and old values in making the community a part of an informal approach to learning.

CONFLICT

Brenton, Myron. Conflict: Make It Work for You. Jan.-Feb.: 30-32. Controversy has a poor reputation, but students in a novel college workshop discover that conflict can be a social constructive force.

CONTINUOUS LEARNING

Martin, Margaret and Charlotte Burrows. Louisiana's High-Flying Apollo School. Mar.: 4-9. Spacious, zesty, yet relaxed, it is a place where children never fail, where they want to learn and where they learn how to learn.

DISCIPLINE IN SCHOOLS

Sapp, Ann C. Succeeding with Success Environment. Nov.: 4-10. Everything's affirmative about a project in Atlanta—the students' academic gains, their feelings, and the feelings of their teachers.

DROPOUTS

Slack, Georgia. Dade County's First Grade Dropout Fighters. Oct.: 4-8. The emphasis is on reading in a Miami elementary school curriculum that is again proving the old saw about an "ounce of prevention."

EDUCATION COMMISSION OF THE STATES

Justus, Hope. Focusing on the States. Dec.: 4-9. The Education Commission of the States has succeeded in forging a solid alliance among governors, State legislators, and educators.

EDUCATION LEGISLATION

Alford, Albert L. What Revenue Sharing Means to Education. Jan.-Feb.: 4-7. While the schools are not cited in a new law providing major sums for the States, the potential for greater fiscal support is there.

Arcuri, Shirley Copeland. IPA: Education Talent Sharing. Jun.: 33-34. The Intergovernmental Personnel Act opens avenues of cooperation between various levels of government and the schools and colleges.

Emergency School Aid Act. Jul.: 9-11. A briefing paper sums up the provisions of a new Federal law that offers support to a range of efforts to deal with racial isolation.

EDUCATIONAL TECHNOLOGY

Schlich, Victor A. Teaching English with TV. Apr.: 13-18. Recognizing that children are comfortable with television, a rural Maine school uses it to help students better their language skills.

Yarbrough, Willard V. Preschool Goes into the Mountains. Jul.: 27-31. Children in an east Tennessee area can't get to kindergarten, so TV, mobile classrooms, and home visits take kindergarten to them.

See also CAREER EDUCATION

EDUCATION—U.S.

Marland, Sidney P., Jr. Education and Public Confidence. May: 5-10. Its achievements notwithstanding, the Assistant Secretary warns, education at all levels is challenged by a wave of disenchantment.

ENGLISH

Schlich, Victor A. Teaching English with TV. Apr.: 13-18. Recognizing that children are comfortable with television, a rural Maine school uses it to help students better their language skills.

ENVIRONMENTAL EDUCATION

Horn, B. Ray. Saturday Is for the Environment. Oct.: 9-12. Michiganders by the thousands proved ready to spend part of their weekend on developing a statewide environmental education program.

January 1973
December 1973

Wood, Walter. Ecological Drums Along the Cuyahoga. Jan.-Feb.: 15-21. Using an entire watershed as their laboratory, students in an Ohio project are exploring ways to stem the steady advance of pollution.

FEDERAL FUNDS

Federal funds (Regular feature) Dec. 1964-. Brief statistical information on programs describing various grants and amounts given.

The Adult Education Program. Jan.: 28. A narrative and statistical report on allocations to the states for adult basic education.

Demonstration Projects in Bilingual Education. Jul.: 32 Brief information and statistics on funds granted to 34 States and outlying areas serving the needs of 109,533 pupils.

Science for High School Students. Dec.: 33. A discussion of the National Science Foundation program to improve high school science courses.

Strengthening Educational Opportunities for Indians. Oct.: 32. Brief information and data on grants made under the Indian Educational Act (Title IV, Education Amendments of 1972).

Training Special Education Teachers. Aug.-Sept.: 32. Brief information and statistics on OE's Bureau of Education for the Handicapped programs in teacher training.

The Trio Programs. Jun.: 35. Brief information and statistics on the U.S. Office of Education's "Trio" programs—Talent Search, Upward Bound and Special Services for Disadvantaged Students.

See also STUDENT AID

FIRST-AID TRAINING

Stewart, Robert O. Survive with Medical Self-Help. Mar.: 26-28. Whatever the emergency's dimensions—flood, fire, or sprained ankle—MSH, a medical survival course, trains one how to cope.

FOLLOW THROUGH

Eckerson, Louise O. Following Through with Follow Through. Dec.: 10-16. Now at the midpoint, the Nation's largest and most diverse educational experiment envisions a total overhaul of early childhood schooling.

HANDICAPPED

Fedo, Michael W. 113 Handicapped Learner Success Stories. Jun.: 29-32. A center that enrolls learning disabled pupils from feeder schools offers a curriculum blending career training and special education.

Hamilton, Andrew. Teaching Handicapped Children and Their Parents. Oct.: 22-26. A private, nonprofit California school operates on the premise that education effectively serves therapeutic as well as other purposes.

Hulsey, Steve. Liberating the Blind Student. Jul.: 18-22. A Delaware program seems to demonstrate that with proper backup, the blind can advantageously join sighted pupils in the classroom.

HIGHER EDUCATION

Brenton, Myron. Conflict: Make It Work for You. Jan.-Feb.: 30-32. Controversy has a poor reputation, but students in a novel college workshop discover that conflict can be a social constructive force.

Fedo, Michael W. A Metropolis as College Campus. Apr.: 7-12. All of the resources of the Minneapolis-St. Paul area are being used in the remarkable new Minnesota Metropolitan State College.

Menefee, Selden. Two-Year College: Where the Action Is. Dec.: 22-26. With a fresh kind of mix of students, faculty, learning concepts, community colleges are breaking the seams of traditional education.

HYPERACTIVITY

Miller, Floyd. Getting Billy into the Game. Jan.-Feb.: 22-27. Grappling with an education problem largely ignored until recently, a California Program now promises help for the hyperactive child.

INNER-CITY TEACHING

de Zutter, Patricia. The Molding of an Inner-City Teacher. May: 22-27. Immersion in life as they will find it is central to a program to prepare student teachers for the profession's toughest assignment.

INTERGOVERNMENTAL PERSONNEL ACT

Arcuri, Shirley Copeland. IPA: Education Talent Sharing. Jun.: 33-34. The Intergovernmental Personnel Act opens avenues of cooperation between various levels of government and the schools and colleges.

See also EDUCATION LEGISLATION

ITEMS

(Regular feature) Jan.-Feb., 1972-. Brief news items are featured each month. Pagination varies for each issue.

KALEIDOSCOPE

(Regular feature) Apr. 1967-. Short features highlight new or unusual educational projects or items of interest.

MEXICAN-AMERICANS-EDUCATION

Hamilton, Andrew. Education and La Raza. Jul.: 4-8. Aroused Mexican-American educators have organized a national task force to improve learning opportunities for their fellow chicanos.

MIGRANTS

Hogan, Patrick F. Improving the Education of Migrant Children. Apr.: 20-24. With MSRTS, a computerized record transfer system, continuity is at last being brought to the schooling of our most mobile students.

Thomson, Peggy. A Visit to Pasco. Oct.: 13-19. A child development center in rural Washington may offer the first step for families determined to "settle out" of the migrant stream.

NATIONAL INSTITUTE OF EDUCATION

A Q & A About the NIE. May: 11-14. The Director of the National Institute of Education (Thomas Glennan) responds to questions about the operation and goals of this new Federal agency.

OPEN SCHOOL

Martin, Margaret and Charlotte Burrows. Louisiana's High-Flying Apollo School. Mar.: 4-9. Spacious, zesty, yet relaxed, it is a place where children never fail, where they want to learn and where they learn how to learn.

Morgan, Frank W., Jr. Vermont's Community-Involved "Open" School. Jun.: 10-15. A dynamic village schoolmarm combines new ideas and old values in making the community a part of an informal approach to learning.

INDEX TO VOLUME IX, American Education January 1973 December 1973

ORGANIZATION DEVELOPMENT

Newell, Terry. Organization Development in Schools. Dec.: 28-32. Obstacles remain, but the behavioral and managerial science techniques to improve the functioning of schools are steadily gaining momentum.

PRESCHOOL

Yarbrough, Willard V. Preschool Goes into the Mountains. Jul.: 27-31. Children in an east Tennessee area can't get to kindergarten, so TV, mobile classrooms, and home visits take kindergarten to them.

PSYCHIATRY

Banks, Carolyn. Troubled Teachers Walk in for Help. May: 28-31. On the theory that teachers, too, have their hangups, a Maryland clinic provides free psychiatric counseling to those who need it.

PUBLICATIONS, GOVERNMENT

Recent publications. (Regular feature) Dec.-Jan., Inside back cover. Lists new U.S. Government Printing Office publications of interest to educators.

READING

Daniel, James. The FUN-damental Approach to Reading. Aug.-Sept.: 23-26. Now operating in 43 States, the "Reading Is FUN-damental" program stresses motivation (and paperbacks) in developing a love of books.

Rich, Leslie. A reading Supermarket for Teachers. Mar.: 14-18. With some 550 different reading materials to pick from, Rockland County (NY) teachers are eager shoppers at their Learning Center.

Waugh, Lynn Bundesen and Jack. La Luz Turns on to Reading. Nov.: 19-22. An elementary-level Right to Read program in a New Mexico school has become an all-out blitz that is now conquering chronic failure.

RESEARCH, EDUCATIONAL

Research and Development. (Regular feature. Formerly called "Research Report"). Apr. 1967-. Back cover. Brief description of OE-sponsored research projects; full reports available through the ERIC system.

REVENUE SHARING IN EDUCATION

Alford, Albert L. What Revenue Sharing Means to Education. Jan.-Feb.: 4-7. While the schools are not cited in a new law providing major sums for the States, the potential for greater fiscal support is there.

See also EDUCATION LEGISLATION

SCIENCE TEACHING

Thro, Ellen. The Play's the Thing for Teaching Science. Nov.: 24-28. A novel Chicago enterprise uses a blend of entertainment and instruction to give students a better understanding of science.

SEXISM

Eaton, Cynthia and Carol Jacobs. The Action on Sexism in Education: Princeton: Changing the Textbooks. Jun.: 26-27. According to a study made by a New Jersey women's group, passages that downgrade females occur even in math books.

Pirsig, Nancy. The Action on Sexism in Education: Minneapolis: Training the Teachers. Jun.: 24-26. A program of human relations workshops and classes seeks to make educators more aware of male-female stereotyping.

Sheehy, James. The Action on Sexism in Education: A Personal Experience: Women's Studies Course. Jun.: 28.

SMOKING

Edson, Lee. Schools Attack the Smoking Problem. Jan.-Feb.: 10-14. A federally sponsored program now spreading among the elementary schools is designed to stop the use of cigarettes before it begins.

STATISTICS

Statistic of the Month (Regular feature) Dec.-Jan., 1968-. Inside back cover. Current statistical reports accompanied by graphs.

Davies, Robert F. Living arrangements of college students. May: 33.

Davies, Robert F. Preprimary Enrollment Reaches New High in October 1972. Oct.: Back cover.

Davies, Robert F. Rate of Increase in College Enrollments Drops. Mar.: 29.

Grant, W. Vance. Education Expenditures as a Percentage of the GNP. Jan.: 33.

Grant, W. Vance. Selected Characteristics of College Faculty Members. Nov.: 29.

Munse, Albert R. Trend Toward Equalization of Educational Opportunity. Dec.: 37.

Grant, W. Vance. Trends in Public School Systems. Aug.-Sept.: 33.

Grant, W. Vance. Trends in the Percent of Public School Teachers Holding the A.B. Degree. Apr.: 29.

Munse, Albert R. Federal Outlays for Education. Jun.: 37.

Grant, W. Vance. School Retention Rates. Jul.: 33.

STUDENT AID

Muirhead, Peter P. Federal Aid for Postsecondary Education. Aug.-Sept.: 4-8. Spurred by five OE student aid programs, the concept of education for everyone is now being extended beyond the level of high school.

Simmons, William M., Jr. Meet Sallie Mae. Oct.: 27. The Student Loan Marketing Association (Sallie Mae), a new member of the Mae family, aims at stimulating the flow of Federal student loan funds.

See also FEDERAL FUNDS

TEACHER TRAINING

de Zutter, Patricia. The Molding of an Inner-City Teacher. May: 22-27. Immersion in life as they will find it is central to a program to prepare student teachers for the profession's toughest assignment.

Pirsig, Nancy. The Action on Sexism in Education: Minneapolis: Training the Teachers. Jun.: 24-26. A program of human relations workshops and classes seeks to make educators more aware of male-female stereotyping.

Rich, Leslie. The Teacher as Change Agent. Aug.-Sept.: 9-13. In New York State, a spry venture called Project Change seeks to reinvigorate early childhood education by revitalizing the teacher.

TUTORING

Vassallo, Wanda. Learning by Tutoring. Apr.: 25-28. In Dallas, high school tutors enlarge their own skills while helping other students and everyone gets a big boost in self-esteem.

VETERANS

Hulsey, Steve. From the Service to the Campus. Aug.-Sept.: 27-30. A Delaware project that combines Talent Search and Upward Bound illustrates a nationwide effort to open education to Vietnam vets.

VOLUNTEERS

Rich, Leslie. The Magic Ingredient of Volunteerism. Jun.: 4-9. Idealism alone is not enough to bring success to student volunteer programs; the youngsters also must be part of the decision-making.